KEEP FULL BRIGHTNESS IN THAT NIGHT

Text selection, direction and musical arrangements: JERZY SATANOWSKI

Premiere: October 25, 2013, New Stage

The performance lasts: 120 minutes (1 intermission)

This is no ordinary theatrical performance. These are professional and breathtaking shows of verbal acrobatics, syllable training and ballroom dancing under the watchful eye of an excellent prestidigitator, poet and translator – Maestro Barańczak – and his faithful entourage! Here each word has at least three roles to play, each sentence blooms with a double meaning and each poem can unexpectedly turn into a song, in addition – with live music... Only in the New Theatre! Only on the Main Stage!
